Here's the Latest! March 22, 2020

Online Sermon:

Woke to the Purpose of the Church | Matthew 16:13-18

Joe's Jots

If you're reading this bulletin, it's not because you picked up a paper copy in person. It's because you're accessing it online. That's a first! Our congregation has been meeting regularly since 1885. I can't say for sure, but Sunday, March 22, 2020 might be the first Sunday our entire church hasn't gathered for worship in 135 years. These are strange, unsettling times and we should be praying extra hard that God would heal our land.

Difficult experiences like this coronavirus pandemic can bring sharper perspective to what is most important in life. I appreciate what a preacher named Ben Giselbach shared on Facebook: "If you still have a job, be thankful. Work extra hard at it. Savor every moment you still have good health. Start hugging your family you're quarantined with extra tight. Tell your friends and loved ones how much you actually love them. Check in on your widows and those who are truly alone and at risk. Thank the Lord every day for providing you with the necessities you have. Really get serious about hanging on to every word of Scripture. Find joy and peace in the comfort only God can provide."

We've left a lot of the same content on the back page of this bulletin, even though many of our works and ministries have been temporarily suspended. Until we're able to be back together, we'll do our best to bring content to you online or on the radio. Stay tuned for the latest details and plans. God will see us through this challenge!

Outreach 2020

Attend. Be here.

We aim to be more committed to gathering with our church family.

Invite. Bring others.

We aim to invite people to gather with us and be added to the church.

Engage. Get busy.

We aim to raise involvement in ministries that emphasize outreach.

Our goal is to exceed our average attendance at every gathering in 2019: 264 Sunday school, 396 Sunday AM, 182 Sunday PM, & 201 Wednesday.

Our goal is to train our members to reach out more effectively and to add 30 baptized believers to our church family in 2020.

Our goal is to help our members learn more about the ministries of our church family and give them opportunities to get involved.

Thank You Note

Brethren,

In the last few weeks, I have preached in Atlanta, GA, in Jacksonville, FL, and in Oklahoma. This week I am preaching in a meeting in Lafayette, TN. Several have responded to the invitation. To God be the glory.

Because of the virus, two of my appointments have been cancelled: 1 for this weekend and another for April 5th. My appreciation for your support and prayers.

My Love,
Keith Parker
