Joe's Jots

Wednesday Nights. Starting this Wednesday, January 8, we'll be offering two new adult classes. These classes will continue to the end of February. Dan Walker will be teaching a series called "The Holy Spirit: God's Power in My Life." I'll be teaching another called "Ordinary Days, Extraordinary God" about bringing glory to God in our everyday routines. Join us!

2025 Theme. I'm excited to introduce our theme for this new year this morning, Sunday, January 5, during our morning worship. In years past, we have emphasized prayer, evangelism, fellowship, the family, and in 2024, spiritual growth. You will soon find out what our church family will be focused on in 2025!

Pick Up in Lobby. In addition to picking up this bulletin (so you can stay up to date on all the latest church news) and the weekly prayer handout (so you can be prayerful for family & friends in need), make sure you also pick up this Sunday...

- The budget summary for 2025, so you can see how church funds are being allocated to do the Lord's work in this new year.
- A "Looking Back on 2024" handout to see who identified with our church family last year, who was baptized, the babies born into our congregation, and also those we lost.

Quotable. After losing to Penn State in the College Football Playoffs, Boise State defensive end Ahmed Hassanein said in a press conference, "First, I wanna start off and say all glory to Jesus Christ. He's the true champion. Coach D [Head Coach Spencer Danielson], you changed my life. You changed my life. I did not know God until I got to Boise State. And I serve a true champion. Jesus Christ is the only true God. He died and rose from the dead three days later, that's the champion that I serve. Thank you Coach D, seriously, you changed my life."
